

BCC Policy: Members Voting & Members Leading

Approved January 2006

Church Membership Required for Church Voting

It was decided by the congregation at the recommendation by the elders that church membership is required for a person to vote at a congregational meeting. Non-members are still invited and encouraged to attend and may participate in discussion, but may not vote.

Church Membership Required for Key Leadership & Teaching Roles

It was decided by the congregation at the recommendation by the elders and took effect in September, 2006 that church membership is required for the following leadership positions: small group leader, director, coordinator, Bible teachers for middle school and up. There may be exceptions for this at the discretion of the elders.
